MYALL LAKES NATIONAL PARK

CANOE TOURS

GREAT LAKES CANOE TOURS

- ❖ CALM WATER CANOEING!
MYALL LAKES NATIONAL PARK
- ❖ WEEKEND TOURS OR 5 DAYS.
- ❖ ONLY THREE HOURS DRIVE
NORTH OF SYDNEY.
- ❖ SMALL FRIENDLY GROUPS.
MAXIMUM 12

Myall Lakes National Park:

Come and explore the largest coastal lake system in N.S.W. Surrounded by National Park, the Lake's calm water is ideal for canoeing. Watch the flora and fauna unfold, as you glide silently along the tranquil shoreline. Water lillies float on the surface, and Kingfishers dart through the trees. Paddle at an easy pace to islands and lakeside beaches. You'll love swimming in the crystal clear, fresh water.

BUSHWALKS with your hosts, Tim and Louise will give you insight into the area's rich natural history. You'll walk through shady, open woodland where koalas may be seen. The forest gives way to delightful wildflowers, attracting blossom-feeding mammals and many types of birds. Lookouts provide stunning views over the Lakes to the Sea.

Camp in comfort . . .

Rather than moving camp each day, we settle into a base camp, in the heart of the Myall Lakes. So you're free to explore by day and relax around the campfire at night. The well appointed camp features walk-in tents, mattresses, hot showers and a large marquee. Our fibreglass touring canoes are very stable. An instruction session and easy pace ensure that both experienced and novice canoeists will enjoy this tour. Your hosts provide delicious meals, complimentary wine and a wealth of experience to make this a totally carefree holiday.

Weekend Tours . . .

Begin: Fridays, 9.00 p.m., Plough Inn, Bulahdelah.

Return: Sundays, 3.00 p.m., Plough Inn, Bulahdelah.

Only 3 hours drive north of Sydney, the Lakes are perfect for a week-end get-away. From the Plough Inn, we drive to our camp on the Lake for supper around the campfire. Next morning we set out for a relaxing day, canoeing around the Lake. Sunday we paddle to yet another beautiful beach, and walk to a lookout for a fantastic view of the lake. Total Cost: $215.00.

Christmas & Easter . . .

Departure details overleaf - 4 days, 4 nights

Treat yourself to a civilized adventure. You'll wake up to the sound of bird-song in our secluded, water-front camp. With your guides you'll explore the Lake's many features. Festive meals include champagne, seafood, easter eggs, hot cross buns etc. Read on for more details. Total Cost: $375.00.

Five-Day Tours . . .

Begin: Mondays, 11.30 a.m., Plough Inn, Bulahdelah.

Return: Fridays, 3.00 p.m., Plough Inn, Bulahdelah.

For an unforgettable holiday, join us for five days. You'll love the tranquil isolation of our camp. Exploring the Lake reveals Sea-Eagles, Possums, Goannas and kangaroos. We bush-walk in a range of habitats ~ learn about bush-tucker and the natural environment. You'll return home feeling relaxed and restored. Total Cost: $415.00.

We Provide . . .

- Well-appointed camp: walk-in tents, marquee, mattresses, hot shower, toilet, reference library.
- Stable, fibreglass touring canoes, safety equipment, two-way radio and a back-up motor-boat.
- Delicious meals and complimentary wine.
- Wet weather gear - we go warm, dry and well prepared for any weather.
- Great Lakes Canoe Tours is fully insured and endorsed by the National Parks & Wildlife Service.
- Your guides have a wealth of training, experience and local knowledge.

Please Bring . . .

Sleeping bags/bed roll; cushion/pillow, hat, sunscreen, towel, swimmers, one change of summer clothes, one change of warm (woolen) clothes, toiletries, sandals and thongs, musical instruments, camera and torch.

How To Get There . . .

Bulahdelah is on the Pacific Hwy, 270 Kms North of Sydney. Follow the signs to Taree, and allow 3-3 1/2 hours. The Plough Inn (Phone 049 97 4285) is on the main street, and backs on to the Myall River.
